

Tennessee House Bill No. 70 (Sykes, 1881 – Chapter 130, 1875)

[On cover]

HB No ~~69~~ 70

Rcd Jny 17

An act to repeal an act entitled “an act to define the rights, duties and liabilities of in-keepers [sic], common-carriers, and proprietors of places of public amusements” passed 23 March 1875

Introduced Jany 12. 1881 – Passed 1st Reading and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

P. 2^d R. Feby 22. 81

Rejected Mar 10

Rec for passage by committee.

Poston. [William Fletcher Poston, a Republican representing Haywood County, was a lawyer and served as U.S. District-attorney for the Western district of Tennessee and temporary speaker of the Tennessee House of Representatives; a member of Governor Robert L. Taylor’s staff, he was a delegate to three national conventions.]

Refer to Judiciary Committee

Rej on 3^d R Mar. 10th

Failed March 30th 1881

T.H. Sykes

[Text]

An Act to repeal an Act entitled “an act to define the rights, duties, and liabilities of Inn-keepers, common carriers, and proprietors of places of public amusements” passed March 23 1875.

Section 1, Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee that An Act entitled “An Act to define the rights, duties and liabilities of inn-keepers, common carriers, and proprietors of places of public amusements, named on the 23 March 1875, and approved 24 March 1875, be and the same hereby is repealed.

Section 2 – Be it further enacted that this act take effect upon and after its passage the public welfare requiring it.